Every precept, on being delivered to the person to whom directed, or left at his last or usual place of abode, is binding upon him. If he should have removed beyond the jurisdiction of the Commissioners, or cannot be found, or his place of abode be unknown, the precept may be affixed on the door of the church or chapel of the place where the Commissioners meet, and it then becomes binding upon him. A return is to be made to the precept within the time limited, subject to the penalty of 20, and treble the duty at which the person ought to be assessed. If the Commissioners are dissatisfied with the schedule, or require further information, they may put any questions touching the contents, or any matters which ought to be contained in it, and from time to time issue their precepts requiring true and particular answers to be given to such questions within seven days; and every person is obliged to return such answer within that period, or tender himself before the Commissioners to be examined viva, voce on such matters. The Commissioners may summon any persons whom they think able to give evidence or testimony respecting the assessment made, or to be made, and may examine all such persons on oath or affirmation: and any person refusing or neglecting to appear, or refusing to be sworn, or, being sworn, refusing to answer any lawful question, incurs a penalty...
