The 108th Congress adjourned without passing comprehensive energy legislation. In mid-November, Representative Tom DeLay and Senator Pete Domenici indicated that new comprehensive energy legislation will be introduced in the 109th Congress. Representative Joe Barton, chairman of the House Energy and Commerce Committee, indicated on December 1, 2004, that any major energy legislation will need to originate in the Senate. The debate over omnibus energy legislation in the 108th Congress was protracted. The House debated energy legislation in the week of June 14. Bills passed included H.R. 4503, which was essentially identical to the conference version of a comprehensive energy bill (H.R. 6) previously passed by the House. A bill to limit environmental reviews of renewable energy projects, H.R. 4513, also passed, as did H.R. 4517, a bill to expedite federal authorization for siting and operation of refineries. Legislation (H.R. 4529) to allow oil and gas development in the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge (ANWR) was withdrawn after the United Mine Workers (UMW) expressed its opposition. The bill would have used bonus bid revenues to help fund the UMW Combined...
