Excerpt from Ethical Selections: That Go With the State Course of Study for South Dakota Let us try any way, said the tortoise. But remember I keep going all the time. Very well, we will call Judge Fox to decide the race, said the hare. Judge Fox came and sat down beside the road. We will have this mile stone for a starting place, said he. Make ready. One, two, three, go. Off they started. The tortoise very slowly and the hare as fast as he could go. He was soon far out of sight of the plodding tortoise. Dear me, said the hare, how foolish for me to run so fast and get all tired and hot for nothing. I shall just turn into this field and eat some of the sweet clover. When he had eaten his fill he went to a spring and took a good drink. No use of any hurry. That slow old tortoise will not be along before morning. I'll just take a little nap under this friendly tree. And...
