AuthorHouse. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 236 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 6.4in. x 1.0in. This is a cop story. Not just A-Cop-Story, but a cop story with a new twist. Written in the first person. Its 1969, our hero, just out of the jungles of Vietnam, returns home to a busted marriage, and a world turned up-side-down. Hes in his late 20s, ten years in the Marines, Recon, Navy Seal, Delta, and nearly four years in combat. Wears the Bronze Star for valor, both the Army and the Navy Commendation, and a chest full of medals hes forgotten what they are for. Oh-yes, we cant forget his four Purple Hearts!. He was captured by the NVA, imprisoned, escaped, and lived with the animals in the jungles before being repatriated. This guy was a real RAMBO, that is until something clicked in him after the last Purple Heart, which nearly scrambled his brain. Disillusioned about the USs involvement in Vietnam, and assigned to another unit headed back in-country in ninety days, our hero, Herman, jumps from the frying pan to the fire. He gets out of the Corps and becomes a cop. He has these super grandeurs of him returning to the street he became a man on, and being welcomed home by his people. But it didnt happen that way. They called him Uncle Tom. At this point I take the reader through the day by day life of a black cop on the streets of San Diego. Through the Police Academy, a staged firing, to the bowls of the city as an undercover cop. No badge, no gun, super-deep, living in the streets, and becoming a part of the street scene. It was like. . . being in the jungles again. But he stumbles on to some deep dog doo-doo....
