Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Open Secret: A Farce in Two Acts Scene. - A student's room in the Radcliffe dormitory, very barely furnished. Madge is seated at a table, R., busily writing notes, which she seals and stamps with a determined air. Enter Jean with a cheerful expression. On perceiving Madge's occupation, she stops short and watches her for a moment. Jean (suggestively). Invitations to a spread? (Madge shakes her head, and continues her writing still more rapidly; Jean reflects.) Jean. Deutsche verein? Cercle Francais? Science club? Class-day committee? Advertising agency for the glee club? (Madge shakes her head more and more impatiently. Jean sinks despairingly into a chair.) Jean. Madge, have you lost your wits, or are you addressing circulars for a firm? Madge (impatiently). Oh, do keep still, Jean. You've just made me say I was decomposing, when I meant I was discomposed. Here, you're welcome to any amount of this literature. (She tosses a bundle of notes over to Jean, and continues her writing.) Jean (reads). My dear Mr. Meade: Would...
