Escaping Taliban Torture: Human Rights Taken Literally! (Paperback)

By Petar Bum, T C Gerard, Qumar Malik

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. During the final editing of this book the Vienna Balkan Conference took place. As an opening two soccer teams (EU and non-EU) had a friendly game on Viennese lawn! At the same time several hundred refugees drowned in the Mediterranean Sea, 71 refugees were found suffocated in an outside-locked truck parked in a highway breakdown bay 30 miles east of Vienna, hundreds of men were tortured in Syria and Libya, some decapitated and many women raped. The Austria Foreign Minister presented a 5 points plan to control the enormous refugee migration to Europe and requests an European solution to end the demonization of the refugees - but this will certainly take long time! The countries with the highest admission (Germany, Sweden, Austria, ) and the Mediterranean countries like Italy and Greece are re-required to organize the registration fast and correctly. Transit countries like Macedonia, Serbia, Hungary (certainly not awarded for its treatment of refugees) and others must receive help from the EU, in order to allow refugees a human and secure transit to their target country. If the...
