Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Reading and listening are a conduit or channel for power. This is support of knowing your real desires. But, your thoughts need to be organized. If they are not, or become disorganized, it is so easy to want to drop the thought, and go for that an easy out. And this is not good for your life. As just noted, that is a lot of Atom Power in the brain maladjusted to cause confusion and trauma. I m sure you ve heard a person giving advice to some one else. Maybe that one giving the advice actually knows nothing about the subject. Yet seriously they have a feeling from their heart for that one particular situation. Or, they just like hearing themselves give advice. Which ever the case may it be, that particular advice is offered from within their perspective. How they see it in their opinion! However, No two people are affected the same way from the same event. We are all different inside and out . It s that simple! So advice is usually only good in part for who ever that advisor is talking with. Unless it is a trained Councilor of that topic! So, giving advice about an event, problem, action or circumstance in the life or environment of another person is often out of place. Advice is an opinion about what could or should be done about a situation or problem. That is except without that shear, or very trimmed training to council. Even though a good suggestion could be necessary, we should be very careful that what is said in advice is understood by the receiver. With that advice, or opinion, you...
