America Star Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 232 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. When Zane and her mother Constance arrive to the infamous haunted city of New Orleans for an all Hallows Eve vacation, they soon realize their timing couldn't have been any worse. Only hours into their visit they received the first warning from a local blues singer begging them to stay together that the dark one is coming. Just so happens it was the first time in forty-six years that Samhain fell in the phase of the full moon giving the vampire Drew all rights to his long awaited redemption to cease the last two of the wicked bloodline. After a strange and exhausting night Zane awakes to a being outside her balcony door. She learns from Jonas, a vampire watcher, what she really is and the power she possesses. Jonas takes Zane world weaving between the spirit plains to learn the truth of her family history and untimely deaths of loved ones taken by the will of Drew's hand. In disbelief the only defense Jonas can give her against Drew is a protection seal painfully branded into her own flesh. Ignoring the warnings as if it was all a dream, Zane and Connie continue to frolic the festive French Quarter streets. However around every corner is a new frightening reality or sign that evil is coming... soon. On the last night the women were stalked after leaving a club by a local clan of blood feeders. But to their surprise they were vaporized and left as a pile of meat on the beer soaked street. Realizing she hadn't been bitten, Zane felt the seal on her neck burning for the first time. She then knew standing only thirty feet away was her nemesis...
