It is therefore hoped that, in days when so many books are prepared for the latter, and enjoyed by them, there may be a place and a welcome for the present volume. The subjects of the Readings are varied, and their length is moderate. The Author hopes that the Texts and Talks will sometimes be read aloud at family worship, as other books of Daily Readings often are. Perhaps it will be found that, while particularly adapted for those still in their teens, these brief Addresses are not altogether unwelcome, when printed as well as spoken, to some young people even whose teens have now to be spoken of as fifty years since. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and...
