These men were absent on some festivities in the neighbourhood. At their return next morning, Mr. Fryer delivered your Excellency s letter and my translation thereof to Avaristo, who assumed authority, with the desire, as no oflicer was present, to send this despatch sealed, and with every expediency, to Fort San Joa uim, and one of the Brazilians, a soldier, and native of Madeira, left the village on horsebac to deliver the despatch to Captain Leal. From all the information Mr. Fryer had been able to gather, it was evident that no resistance was intended. The ordeis of the Commandant Leal and Fray Jose to Avaristo, on leaving Pirara, were to send immediate information of m arrival to Fort Sun J oaquim,...
